The Class of 2005 might be the last class whose diplomas will say "Governor Dummer Academy". The students were against the possible name-change and even staged rallies to express their feelings to the trustees.

most exciting announcements in morning meeting: the last person to pick up his books in September, the first person to receive an absentee ballot for the election, the student with the most college pamphlets in her mailbox. She gives the best gifts, too, like Oklahoma t-shirts and GDA ponchos! She orders things we have always wanted: GDA lip balm, GDA rubber duckie key chains, GDA sports bras, GDA water glasses, and GDA dog leashes. She helps us decide whether we want to spend our parents' money on candy or Gatorade. With such an

She puts that type of amusing spin on things. She reads us children's books in chapel to remind us of the fun aspects of life that we seem to forget. She has the effervescent and friendly personality, we find ourselves being drawn to the room off the dim, grungy hallway in the field house. Once we get there we find a haven of optimism. There is no better way to forget about a math test than by eating M&M's and talking to her. We make up excuses to go down to the bookstore: books, candy, money, and sweatpants. She knows everyone's name and has a smile for all of us. Wacky? Whatever. We love you for it. You are the most vivacious, inspiring, and uplifting character on campus, and we will never, ever forget you. You have helped each and every student in a myriad of ways. This is why you are, in the estimation of the Class of 2005, deserving of the Milestone Dedication.

EDITOR REC

His infectious love of life and boundless congeniality have made him one of the most beloved personalities on campus. His effective teaching style and easygoing manner make his classes some of the most desired among students. Always available, he strives to help his students excel at whatever they are working on. His concern for his student's education and well-being make him more than just a teacher.

He has been one of the most influential figures in my time here at GDA. I can be myself around him and he will help me with any problems academically or personally. He carries himself in a way that I greatly admire, and is the one of the most knowledgeable people I know. Whether he is taking photos of his adventures or designing plays on his Smartboard, his excitement for what he is doing is evident in his voice. I thank you for your energy and for the helpful advice that you have always given me.

Mr. David VanNess

COGNITION

It is not what you see,
it is how you see.
-Eliot Erwitt-

In all of my time here, this person has been one of the most receptive, personal, and inspiring people I have encountered. His class taught me to savor and capture the fresh brilliance of our world. More than a terrific teacher of his art, he is an advisor to all of his students. If we seem distressed, he worries about our problems before tardiness or forgotten homework.

On a personal level, this person has helped me through it all: bad grades, bad teachers, bad breakups, and a seemingly insurmountable amount of stress (often as a result of grades, teachers, or breakups). I thank you for listening to me complain, sharing your knowledge, and truly appreciating all that goes on at GDA. As you have remained close with many past students, I know that we will stay in touch long after I have left Governor Dummer.

CHRISTIAN COLARUSSO

To Everybody; Family, Friends, Teachers, Coaches, Anyone Else

You all know who you are, so I will say what I have to in person. I can't do it in any amount of words.

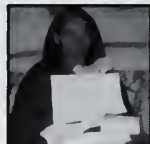

But, I don't think I'll realize how much I'll miss this place and everyone here until it's too late so ...Thank You! I sincerely appreciate everything you've ever done for me. Much Love.

Hannah.

As for you, there really is no combination of words to express how much you mean to me. I will always Love You!

Congrats to our Class of 2005, it's been a pleasure!

I would like to use this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude to my family and everyone in the Governor Dummer Academy community. To those who have allowed me to learn by erring, (even repeatedly) thank you; to all who have supported, pushed, guided, taught, helped and loved me in any capacity, directly or indirectly, thank you. I had never considered, until the present moment of composing this message, the consequences of my decision to come to GDA, as well as the privilege of remaining here. The tremendous transformation that GDA facilitated borders upon indescribable.

In all honesty, I have already forgotten most of the specific facts I have learned in the past few years. I remember the basics and I remember most of the significant information; but more notably, GDA has taught me about myself. I have learned, to a great, yet perpetually incomplete extent, how to learn. I shall continue to nurture this invaluable skill throughout the remainder of my life. I see in hindsight that GDA has accelerated the growth of my identity so remarkably that despite the lingering baby-face and curls, I seem like an entirely different person, one whom I love. Goodbye.

JENIFER O'LEARY

Ulysses

- Alfred, Lord Tennyson

...I cannot rest from travel: I will drink
Life to the lees: all times I have enjoyed Greatly, have suffered greatly, both with those
That loved me, and alone; on shore, and when Through scudding drifts the rainy Hyades
Vexed the dim sea...

I am part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethrough
Gleams that untraveled world, whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move.
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnished, not to shine in use...

Death closes all; but something ere the end,
Some work of noble note, may yet be done,
Not unbecoming men that strove with Gods.
The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks;
The long day wanes: the slow moon climbs: the deep Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows: for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.
It may be that the gulls will wash us down;
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,
And see the great Achilles, whom we knew.

Tho' much is taken, much abides; and though
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven; that which we are, we are:
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

HILARY SCHEINTAUB

I would like to thank all of you who have helped me in the past four years.

"I dreamed I was at a circus with him and that he refused to laugh at the clowns no matter what they did. Then later he told me to open my brief case and read what was inside and I did, finding an official envelope stamped with the state seal; and inside the envelope I found another and another, endlessly, and I thought I would fall of weariness. 'Them's years,' he said. 'Now open that one.' And I did and in it I found an engraved document containing a short message in letters of gold. 'Read it,' my grandfather said. 'Out loud!'

'To whom It May Concern,' I intoned. 'Keep this Nigger-Boy Running.'"

SURASAK MANEESRI

To Thailand, I need to say thank you to the Royal Thai Army for giving me a really good opportunity to study in the lovely campus, Governor Dummer Academy. Even though I didn't choose to come here by myself, I think that GDA is the appropriate school for me. I have a really good time here with American people and I have learned many good things from GDA. I hope to share my experience to everyone when I go back to Thailand. To the faculty, I willingly want to say thank you to everyone who gives me really useful knowledge, not only calculus, physics, English, ESL but also psychology and electronic music composition. Even though something I have studied before in Thailand, you have a different way to teach me how to think systematically and correctly. I hopefully will apply knowledge I have studied in GDA to use and solve problems in my daily, as I know that "knowledge is power." To coaches especially Abu and Mr. Kelly, thank you for giving me a good chance to join running team. I have learned how to work hard and how to work with teammates. You also taught me that nothing is hard beyond our ability if we want to do, and we will know that we can do it well. To senior, although it was my first year at GDA, everyone seems to be my good friend. I have learned many things, which are really different form my country, language, culture, and lifestyle. It makes me know how to live in this country happily. To chefs, thank you for making tasty food for everyone everyday. Sometimes you make me happy when I see your food. Also, thank you for making dining hall to be a good place for me to have meals and relax. Moreover, I also want to say thank you to any other people who make this campus to be a beautiful campus. I will never forget that once I have a good time with everyone at GDA. Every second I spent here will be engraved in my mind as good memories forever.

JONATHAN GUY

CHRISTOPHER MCKINNON

I believe a leaf of grass is no less than the journey work of the stars,
And the pismire is equally perfect, and a grain of sand, and the egg of the wren,
And the tree-toad is a chef-d'oeuvre for the highest,
And the running blackberry would adorn the parlors of heaven,
And the narrowest hinge in my hand puts to scorn all machinery,
And the cow crunching with depress'd head surpasses any statue,
And a mouse is miracle enough to stagger sextillions of infidels.

-Walt Whitman, "Song of Myself" from Leaves of Grass

DAN GALAJDA

my heart made my
Both of you

Greg- My little

It's been a long 14 years and soon, it will be over. Fortunately I'm ready, as most of seniors are, to move on. For lack of a better word, things have gotten stale, and although I don't mean to brag, but I think it may be more stale for me than anyone else.

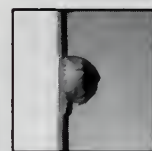

This, of course, is excepting fellow fac brat Johnny Guy who ruins my parade of being here longest by having the impudence to be born already living here. It is probably due to this prolonged stay here that I looked for schools anywhere but New England. UC Boulder should be an excellent change and I'm looking forward to it immensely.

The past four years have kinda blurred together, and to be perfectly frank, I don't really remember freshman year. I mean, I'm aware that it happened, and I remember various bits of it but most of it is blurred (some of it you all won't let me forget. Like my supposed "orange fetish" is Nelly's Heritage and Identity...). Looking back, there seem to be more good times than bad and a lot of that is because of everyone else.

I'm going to say sorry in advance in case anyone gets hurt feeling because I didn't mention you. There are a couple of reasons why I might not have mentioned you, 1) I simply forgot because I am a bad, lazy person, 2) I ran out of time/room (I happen to be running on a deadline now and am restricted to 500 words or less), or 3) I purposely didn't mention you because I secretly hate your guts and wish you would disappear. If you think you might be the third option, please pretend that its option 1 and you'll feel better.

I'll start with a shout out to all the techies. It's been a good couple of years, and in the mayhem and chaos of running gigs, I not only learned some stuff, but I made some cash as well. We had some great times (need I mention late night flashlight tag? Or the multiple slipups and feedback?) We don't know the next years proctors yet but I'm certain we're in good hands and if not, well, Joe can just work harder. A special remembrance to Joe and all the graduated techies (Dante, Amrit, Alicia, and Michelle) for teaching me all that stuff and letting me get involved, although personal laziness on their part could be a reason.

Well I seem to be running out of space, so for the rest of you schleps, have fun next year and thanks for all the great times (Especially you Timmy, don't work too hard). Also, to my parents, thanks for forking over the huge amount of extra cash to send to send me to Colorado as opposed to Umass. Finally, Justin, its been a long time since 1st grade and its been worth it, every second. Good luck at Wentworth.

TO MY FAMILY: THANK YOU FOR THE IMMEASURABLE LOVE AND SUPPORT

TO MY FRIENDS, TEACHERS, AND COACHES:
YOU HAVE ALL HAD A DIRECT IMPACT ON MAKING
MY EXPERIENCE AT GDA A POSITIVE ONE,
AND I THANK YOU FOR THAT.

TO THOSE OF YOU I WILL NOT SEE AGAIN
IN THE NEAR FUTURE: I WISH YOU ALL THE BEST
IN YOUR STUDIES, HOBBIES, AND ENDEAVORS.
ALTHOUGH IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO THANK
EACH OF YOU FOR ALL THAT YOU HAVE DONE
FOR ME, I THINK IT IS SAFE TO SAY THAT MY LIFE

NOT BEEN A PART OF IT HERE. THAT SAID, I HOPE

The GDA community has been the greatest place for me to grow in these four years of my life. Thank you to everyone in this community; this school has changed me so tremendously that I am barely the individual I was when I first walked onto this campus at the young age of fourteen. I cannot, at this moment, comprehend that this is the end. As with every end, though, there is a new beginning, and I will take the many skills, thoughts, loves, and memories from GDA with me on every new beginning I shall embark upon in my life. Mom and Dad: Thanks for spoiling me with this education, it was worth every penny. I love you because you love me no matter what, support me in everything I want to do and encourage me to be great. I am so lucky to have you always there for me. D: We have had so much fun together this past year-don't forget that there will always be plenty of floor space for you to stay at Columbia! Caroline: from crazy teachers to NYC, we've had such great times. I will never forget our "bio sleepovers" with no actual studying, HP release parties, moldy coffee spilling in the car, trips to Home Depot, and meeting the stars of practically every show we see. I'll always feel at home eating junk food with your family, but Broadway and 116th will be way better! Nicole: You've been here with me all along, (since Martha's recitals in 6th grade!) I'll miss your hilarious impressions and complaints...have a great time in Boulder. Hannah: I'm so glad we got to show you NYC for the first time! You have to come visit us there! Milestone Helpers/Tyler: We did it! This is a book we deserve to be so proud of...it's the greatest this school has ever seen. Keep being creative next year, and don't forget to call me with questions! Guild People/Jon: We really revamped the guilds this year, and I'm thankful for everyone involved. It's been a blast singing in them since freshmen year. Good luck next year! My freshman crew: (JR, JP, AS, EM, LB) you guys accepted me and gave me the greatest freshman year I could wish for. Justin: you taught me so much and were such an integral part of my high school experience...you were too good to me. Amy: We should have eaten more food on the Milestone budget; you've been a great friend this year. The Pentucket crew: (Celia, Maryse, Sara, Farrell, Ryan, Dan, Bobby, Kat, Carissa) You guys keep me sane. We have had so many unforgettable times, and you are my best friends in the world...I couldn't have made it through this place without you. The greatest teachers on the planet: Thanks for being great teachers, great people, and great friends. You have given me a true education; you have taught me to love to learn. Oxton (Thank you for being there for me all year, you've helped me through so much; you opened my eyes to great design and inspired me to keep being creative until July), VanNess (I hope my life will someday be as exciting as yours! I'll miss your extraordinary stories and unvarying, smiling support.), Ogden (skinabish/bondourniki - can I make up any more words? You changed the way I look at the world, thanks for putting up with me. I'll miss you.), Stowe (Your teaching, playing, and encouragement helped me progress so much. We've had our issues but you really taught me a lot about music and life, and I am a much better singer for it.), Ruhl, Ceglarski, Brace, Drelich, Karin, Wann, Keegan, Robbie, Bradley, A-Wall, Gettings, Abu, Rowe. Other people who have touched me in the past 4 years: Amanda, Vancisin, Al, BC Calc!, you guys are writing to drunken short. Thank you from the first day I had here that I was welcome.

ROBERT RUDOLPH

EDWARD CASSELS

Firstly can I say it's very weird one of these without being able to refer incidents. For this reason, this will be all for being so friendly! I really felt right me. I wish I had more time at this place, I've had an awful lot of fun with so many nice people. I can only wish I knew more of you better. I still can't believe you can't take freshmen to prom. That is simply the most ridiculous thing I've ever heard. Oh no, wait, it isn't, you can't drink until you're 21. There have been a few people who have made my far too limited time here more bearable, so congratulations to (in no particular order) Garson, Sam, Meg'n'Molly, Dodger, YJ, Max, Bobby, Nikki, Mattie, Dev, Big Willy the Swede, Lina, Emmy, Colin, Big Mac, Lombo, Jyo, Texas Jake, Nick ("Hey Sam!...Shuddup!"), Sketchy, DJ, Ruth, Tommy D, "Salty" Pete Collins, Gooobin, Chrissy Van C Russo, J.Lo, JC, Jimbo, Jesus and Cush. You all officially have a cool English friend. To be honest I actually liked everyone I met at GDA, so sorry if I didn't mention you, and anyway I doubt you're too offended at being left off my list. The freshmen girls are all awesome too, but apparently it's illegal to write the name of a girl under the age of 16. This is a wonderful country that I know I'm coming back to, so if you're exceedingly lucky you might end up seeing me again. If anyone ever needs a place to stay in Europe, you have only to ask. Except JC. You really worry me, stay away from my continent. Here's to the summer! To those of you I'll be spending it with, you are in for the time of your poor, English-person-deprived lives. To everyone else, thank you for an experience I will treasure, and I mean that. I have had such a wonderful time at GDA, and I'm the luckiest person in the world to have graduated with two sets of schoolfriends.

God Bless America, but Save the Queen first.

Mom and Dad- You are both amazing and words could not even explain how much I love both of you. Thanks for being the most amazing parents in the world. Decia- The greatest sister/co-pilot in the world and not to mention and pretty super best friend. Friday night dinners are always an entertaining time. Thanks for looking out for me. I cannot think of a time that you did not manage to make me laugh. Barrie- Ski Club+ a little Splava Flava is pure magic. Thank you for being there when that "line" needed to be crossed. Thanks for everything. Tim and Mike- It's going to be weird next year. I don't think I'll ever meet two more people as funny and fun to hang out with. Thanks for the countless memories. It doesn't matter how much I write, so remember these four years and look back at all of the fun we had together. My so-called friends laughed at me and left me outside to rip my tongue off of the pole and go inside to meet the snickers of other students and pitying looks of teachers acknowledging me as idiot boy. ## the Presidential Election was big news for much of 2004. The candidates were hotly debated nationally and on our own campus. Our mock election, staged on election day, mirrored the issues of the real election. In the end, George W. Bush was re-elected for a second term.

Girls' dorms were in lockdown mode every Thursday night for the OC, a new TV show. There were post-show chat rooms in dorms, and even an OC fan club, with Kelsey Correia as president, sending out weekly e-mails with in-depth discussion of the previous week's episode and predictions for this week's.

The greatest natural disaster in recorded history occurred in the Indian Ocean in the form of a tsunami. GDA students responded by sponsoring a benefit concert, directed by Caroline Ott and Nicole Dietz, to aid the tragedy's victims.

Governor DUMMER Academy

The trustees voted to change the school's name to a new one without the "Dummer" connotation. The student body, on average, did not approve of this decision, because they believed that Governor William Dummer's legacy should be preserved in the school's name. Protests and rallies were staged by the students during trustee weekend.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

The New England soccer finals were held at GDA
on Sunday, November 7

"I'm a rover...trash is my life!"

- Mr. Gettings-

As always, there were issues with missing
items...we heard endless calls across the system of
"I can't find my walkietalkie!" and
"Gardiner
stole my golf cart!"

Mock Election

THE STUDENTS WERE DIVIDED INTO TWO FICTIONAL POLITICAL PARTIES: THE STARS (MORE LIBERAL) AND THE STRIPES (MORE CONSERVATIVE). BOTH PARTIES WERE WELL SUPPORTED, BUT GREEN ROBINSON, THE STARS PARTY CANDIDATE PREVALED IN THE ELECTION.

2004
2004

"WE, THE CONSTITUENTS OF THE GREAT STATE OF FLORIDA, THE SUNSHINE STATE, KNOWN FOR ITS ORANGES, HOME OF THE MIAMI DOLPHINS AND THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF DISNEY, GIVE OUR 27 ELECTORAL VOTES TO SENATOR JACK ANDREWS."

TUESDAY WITHOUT WALLS

"THE STRIPES NATIONAL COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT THEIR PARTY IS CHANGING ITS EMBLEM FROM AN ELEPHANT TO A CONDOM BECAUSE A CONDOM ACCEPTS INFLATION, HALTS PRODUCTION, DESTROYS THE NEXT GENERATION, AND GIVES YOU A SENSE OF SECURITY WHILE YOU'RE ACTUALLY GETTING SCREWED."

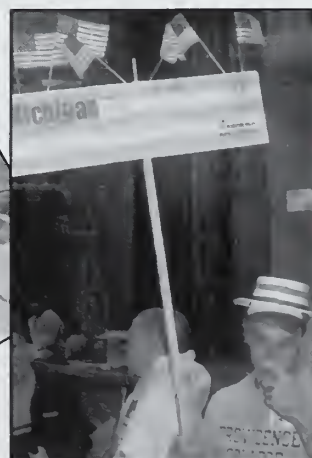

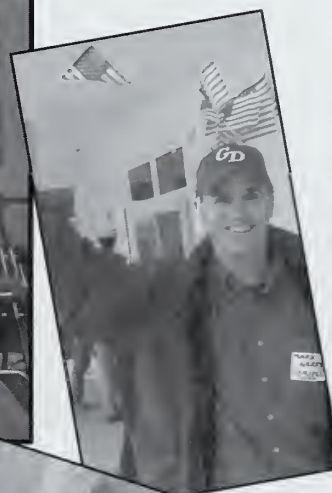

- STARS PARTY CHAIR-
WOMEN AUDRIE GRIGUN &
KELSEY CORREIA

"MOHAMMED [Right] TAKES A STAND ON VERY FEW ISSUES.

EDUCATION: IF YOU'RE NOT ATTRACTIVE AND CAN'T PLAY SPORTS, YOU BEST PICK UP A BOOK RIGHT QUICK...THE DEFECIT: FOR ENOUGH MONEY, THE KING CAN MAKE THE CAMEL DANCE ON THE PYRAMIDS...ABORTION: IF YOU'RE NOT PREGNANT, SHUT UP."

The 242nd Graduation exercises
at Governor Dummer Academy

As I look ahead to college, I realize that it is going to be hard to find people who appreciate the GDA humor. Not many students are going to get a kick out of a simple "hiee" or a "bring the pain" or even a "take a lap." And I'll never have another opportunity to have almost my whole school in one room for 15 minutes between my second and third class to sit there and just stare at each other. In college, the library will most likely not be the cool place to hang out. I will not be able to see my English professor school my friends on the basketball court or find one who will offer to be in a tight spandex outfit for a morning meeting video. Take what you've learned here, the bonds you've shared, the laughs you laughed and the tears you've cried with you. Share them with the people you are spending your next stage in life with. But never forget, your never going to find another place quite like this.

-Lindsey Hery's Speech-

I've learned a lot in my time here... that it's appropriate to stand when Mr. Doggett announces a kudo for you. If nothing else, it'll help the person five rows away find you when they catch it, that under the right circumstances, a senior in the fourth quarter will do more homework for softball than Precalculus, that true terror is the feeling you get when Mr. Leavitt waits for the first Cum Laude kid to walk all the way up to the stage before announcing the second name, that even on your worst day at GDA, you can still count on a few things... Mr. Moonves ready with a firm handshake, Chris at the bookstore willing to listen to all your troubles, and Lily Kingsbury with the smile to make you forget them. And for a bad day, that's not too bad.

Special Prizes

She has delighted audiences on the stage of the PAC with her impressive voice and accomplished acting skills. Her love of learning has inspired her teachers. Her leadership of the Milestone has set high standards for dedication, creativity and organization. Her commitment to friends, family and high principles merits emulation. Next fall she will be at Columbia University, a few steps closer to the footlights of Broadway, which very well might be her next destination.

Rebecca Rose Kelly

Over the last four years he has been on a journey of exploration. He plumbed the depth and scope of his academic potential, he mastered the skills of a sport foreign to him, he distinguished himself as a musician and quietly evolved into an effective leader: all the while learning important cross cultural lessons. He has built bridges of understanding within our community and modeled the qualities of tolerance and acceptance. Extremely popular with his peers, respected by the faculty, he has been one of the jewels in GDA's crown.

Young Jae Lyoo

She arrived at GDA with lofty ambitions, high ideals and sound principles. She has never wavered in their pursuit. She follows her beliefs rather than the crowd. She is outspoken and articulate when issues of fairness and justice are at stake. She has a big heart and a deep reservoir of empathy. She has enriched our school with her strong voice and generosity of spirit.

Ebony Knowlin

At Governor Dummer, we rejoice in the Athenian model: the well-rounded student who is an artist, athlete, academician and good citizen. A talented potter, he took on the responsibility of creating bowls and organizing the annual Soup's On program that raised more almost $3,000 for the Cape Anne Food Pantry. He served as tri-captain of the tennis team. He has consistently earned honors level grade. He has served with distinction as a member of the Discipline Committee and as a dormitory proctor. We are proud of his accomplishments and grateful for his inspiring leadership.

Thomas Lawrence Roche

She has tested her mettle time and time again by taking courses that challenged her, setting goals each season to go beyond her "personal bests" in athletics, and by remaining true to her strong personal values. Her determination and willingness to take risks have earned her consistent honor roll grades; school and ISL meet records in the high jump, and a place on the discipline committee. She has done all of these things with the gifts of courage, loyalty, humor and humility keeping her on course. She is as straightforward and honest as the granite of her native state.

Hannah Jeanette Sylvester

Mary Leary

"Her vision and leadership have been significant. She has our thanks and appreciation for a job well done."

- M. Doggett

Thanks for everything you gave to the students for 14 years.

This book serves as a record of this school with these people in this year.

Governor Dummer Academy

with its 371 students in the 2005 school year
was an amazing place.

Extraordinary things were accomplished: records were set, championships were won, new concepts were discovered, and laughter was frequent. The Class of 2005 leaves GDA with a legacy, a legacy of dedication, sportsmanship, and style. We are sad to realize that our four short years have already passed, but we have much to show for it. Our teachers taught us to think creatively, and inspired us to explore, discover, and design. Our friends are irreplaceable, with them we have shared so much and will share so much in the years to come. Our experiences here are forever etched in our minds, the good, the bad, and the hilarious.

We have brains in our heads,
We have feet in our shoes,
We can steer ourselves
In any direction we choose.
We're on our own. And we know what we know.
And WE are the guys who'll decide where to go.

-Dr. Seuss-

Choose wisely,
Choose wildly!

We'll miss you!

Only now, the middle of July 2005, with the first 195 pages of the Milestone completed, can we truly look back on this experience. This book has been a labor of love for the past 10 months, and it was worth each free block and late night that was spent in our fabulously decorated basement office. Thank you to everyone that came to our Tuesday night brainstorm sessions; you were all inspiration for this yearbook. Thank you to our photographers who took wonderful pictures. Thank you to friends and family who listened to complaints about deadlines and incomprehensible excitement over color pages, artistic design, and senior pages. This book is the shining crown on a fantastic time at Governor Dummer Academy, and thanks to the entire community for every single moment spent here. You will never be forgotten.
